King's Fair

What a wonderful day we all enjoyed! Although the nasty weather persisted most of the day, our families and friends were undaunted: we moved everything inside for the second year in a row! Funds are still being tabulated, but the fun can be measured in the photos below!

KING'S FAIR BANNERS

keep getting better every year! For the first time they will remain on display through the end of the school year! Come take a look at the great work in St. Anthony Hall!

CAAC— Modern Oratory and Catholic Poetry Section

The second round of the Archdiocesan Catholic Academic and Artistic Competitions was held this past weekend, and once again our students represented us well!

For the Catholic Poetry category:

Grade 1 & 2: Sofia Mercado - 2nd, Sahib Grewal - 3rd, Alejandro Mercado - 4th, Kanon Flojo - 5th Yes, we took 4 of the top 6! :)

Grade 3 & 4: Emmanuelle Mefrige - 1st

For the Modern Oratory category:

Grade 5 & 6: Alex Sanchez—2nd Place

Grade 7 & 8: Gabriel Prochko—1st, Franco Navarrete—4th

Grade 9 & 10: Tony Domit—1st, Abigail VonBerg, 2nd, Daniel Henriquez, 4th

Grade 11 & 12: Daniel Rosa—1st, Verinika Prochko—2nd, Jonathan DuBois—3rd

We are very proud of all of these students for participating and doing their best! It was not an ideal day to be there -- with the rain and with the conflict of King's Fair -- but they were troopers!

The next competitions are Spelling and Math in January.
